

GREGORY B. HILL

PRESIDENT & FOUNDER

A native Augustan, Greg is the President & Founder of G.B. Hill Medical Supply, a company specializing in the sale of consumable and durable medical supplies and equipment via warehouse distribution, eCommerce and storefront sales. Originally founded in 2018 as an eCommerce business specializing in consumable and durable medical supplies and equipment (DME), he saw the need and transitioned the company to a brick-and-mortar location after the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Before establishing G.B. Hill Medical Supply, Greg was a candidate for the Georgia House of Representatives and is a Veteran of War with a commendable record in various leadership positions. His commitment to excellence is evident in his nomination as a White House Fellow, a solid endorsement for the Army Congressional Liaison Program, his selection as a contender for the Army Medical Service Corps Award of Excellence, and his work on the staff of four Army General Officers.

Through his leadership, G.B. Hill Medical Supply has formed significant partnerships with global corporations such as UPS, Dynarex Medical, Cardinal Health, Vive Health, Mckesson Medical, Drive DeVilbiss Healthcare, etc. Today, G.B. Hill Medical Supply proudly stands as the first minority-owned medical supply and durable medical equipment distributor headquartered in Augusta, Georgia.

Greg is actively involved in business at both the national and global level. He currently serves as Treasurer for the Augusta Economic Development Authority (AEDA), an organization dedicated to U.S. and global business recruitment for the City of Augusta, Georgia. Notably, he recently held the position of Chairman of the Small Business Administration (SBA) Advisory Committee on Veterans Business Affairs (AVCBA) in Washington, DC.

His academic achievements include a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from South Carolina State University, an Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA) degree from Troy University, and an Economic Development Finance Professional (EDFP) certification from Grow America.

In his personal life, Greg is a member of the Historic Thankful Baptist Church, a proud father of two daughters, Carter and McKenzie, and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
